FAMILY PENSION

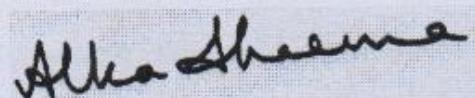

PREFACE

This booklet provides general information regarding family pension with a view to safeguarding the interest of dependents of service personnel and pensioners. It contains the description of different types of family pension and the circumstances in which they are sanctioned. The list of documents required to be submitted to the record offices is particularly mentioned with a view to encouraging the users to ensure that the copy of the same are available with their dependents also.

It is our endeavor to make the booklet as exhaustive as possible to make it useful to all concerned. The booklet has been updated based on the 7th central Pay Commission Report and all latest orders consequent to its acceptance. It may be noted that amount mentioned in the booklet will undergo changes as and when new Government orders are introduced.

The users of the Booklet are also requested to keep in mind that the contents are only gist of the original orders and not the original order themselves.
